

Appendix F: State Environmental Policy Act (SEPA) Documents

Seattle Public Utilities (SPU) is currently developing a draft SEPA Environmental Checklist, which will undertake internal review and evaluation in early April 2012. After evaluating the proposal, SPU (as lead agency) is expected to determine the Solid Waste Plan Revision is unlikely to have any significant adverse environmental impacts. SPU plans to issue a Determination of Non-significance (DNS) in late April 2012 with the requisite public notice, circulation, 14-day public comment period, and concurrent 21-day appeal period.
